

Social Justice: November

Dates Worthy of Note:

- 12 USCCB reflection on food, farmers, and farm workers, “For I Was Hungry and You Gave Me Food”, 2003
- 13 USCCB issue “A Place at the Table”, 2002 publication on Immigration
- 20 Universal Children’s Day
- 17 International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women

Monthly Focus: Women, Children & Violence

Suggested Actions:

Be attentive to women and children in your place of ministry and be intentional in your listening and concern for them.

Raise awareness of the powerlessness of women and children in situations of poverty, homelessness, and abuse. Share information with others about these realities.

Donate your old cell phones to the National Coalition against Domestic Violence to connect victims and survivors to helpful resources, and help them remain free from abuse. Free downloadable mailing labels are available at:

Write a letter to your elected officials about strengthening human trafficking laws.

Prayer Response:
Offer an intercessory prayer at Morning or Evening Prayer for protection and relief for women and children who suffer abuse and live in fear.
